Highland Park High School

Topeka, Kansas

Evolution

Approximately 200 students were housed in the new high school building in 1935.
Enrollment for the 1939 and 1940 term has exceeded 400.

The first school building in H. P. in 1868 was located where the present high school stands

Grades and two-year high school were housed in this building in 1889

To A Progressive
Highland Park

In recognition of the concurrent school-community growth and in sincere appreciation of the constructive attitude prevalent in Highland Park regarding its schools, the staff dedicates the 1940 "Highlander" to "A Progressive Highland Park."

The Senior Class

Climaxing senior activities comes Commencement May 17 with President W. A. Brandenburg of Kansas State Teachers' College, Pittsburg, as speaker. Seventy-eight seniors remain of the ninety-five freshmen who started in 1936.

Mr. Paul Blackwood sponsored the group the first three years. Miss Dorothy Black, previously assistant, was elected to the sponsorship for the senior year.

During the freshman term a comedy, "Julius Caesar," turned out to be a memorable presentation. This same year the German band was organized among the high school "babies." A "kid party" was the main event for the sophomores of '37.

"Garden of Memories," the junior-senior prom, was a gala occasion with an old-fashioned garden as the setting. "Enter the Hero," a three-act comedy, was the junior play.

A three-act farce comedy, "Spring Fever," under the direction of Miss Golda Crawford, was the entertaining senior play. The senior class were guests of the juniors at the junior-senior prom April 26.

AN unusually large audience attended "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," a three-act play of post-Civil war days, presented by a cast of twenty-seven juniors with Miss Glada Strode as director.

The gratifying proceeds from the fall play went to the major class project of the spring, the annual junior-senior prom, which was cleverly and uniquely carried out in pirate theme. Miss Golda Crawford was in charge.

Officers for the first semester were: Harold Epling, president; LeRoy McCollum, vice-president; Mina Pressgrove, secretary; Marjorie Dargitz, treasurer; Bob Knight, sergeant-at-arms. For the second semester Lois Cheatwood was president; Frank Young, vice-president; Mina Pressgrove, secretary; Marjorie Dargitz, treasurer; Bob Knight, sergeant-at-arms.

The Junior Class

The Sophomore Class

OUTSTANDING sophomore events during the year were the Sadie Hawkins party March 8 and the assembly March 14.

Those serving as officers for the first semester were: president, Clement Shackle; vice-president, Norman Jones; secretary-treasurer, Barbara Stapleton; sergeant-at-arms, Dale Doty. For the second semester Tom Allen acted as president; Grace Holeman, vice-president; Barbara Stapleton, secretary-treasurer; Bob Grabow, sergeant-at-arms.

The Bagpiper

Edited and published once a month by the journalism class, the Bagpiper offers students a record of news and features regarding school activities. Art work by Bill Moseley has been a special feature this year.

The newspaper is stenciled and mimeographed by the typing classes under the direction of Miss O'Brien.

During the past year the Bagpiper was edited by Wilma Wulfkuhle, Velma Lou Obenhaus, Bill English, Ronald Billings, Harold Tillman, Paul Morriss, Max Holeman, and Charles Allen.

This year's class has taken a particular interest in interviewing celebrities among whom have been Thomas Mann, Carveth Wells, Lord Duff-Cooper, Ruth Bryan Owen, and H. R. Knickerbocker. Harold Voth leads the class with five notables on his list for the term. Several class members have interviewed one or more.

Glee Clubs

Orchestra

The orchestra, under the direction of Miss Ruth Holmen, provided music for the junior, senior, and Spot-light Club plays and for two musicales. A string trio, composed of Bill Moseley, Velma Lou Obenhaus, and Clara Jo Fair, has been quite popular.

Band

Enhanced by kiltie-clad majorette and vivacious twirlers, the colorful Scottie band strutted their brass, wood, and percussion "zip" at athletic events as well as at pep assemblies preceding home games. Mr. Harold Elder's lads and lassies climaxed a year of creditable performances when they appeared in two spring concerts, one in assembly and the other as a part of the April musicale. A popular feature was the appearance of Virginia Langdon as soloist on several occasions.

"To find and give the best" is the source of inspiration that spurs the G. R. club on to progressively successful years of activity and service.

Membership soared to its highest total this year with 131 members. At the city-wide officers' conference the Highland Park cabinet presented a skit, and Velma Lou Obenhaus was elected city-wide vice-president.

The cabinet consists of: president, Helen Root; vice-president, Betty McCarter; secretary, Velma Lou Obenhaus; treasurer, Virginia Langdon; music chairman, Mildred Richardson; program chairman, Roberta Shimer; service chairman, Barbara Stapleton; social chairman, Marjorie Dargitz; publicity chairman, Wanda Gingrich; faculty sponsor, Miss Golda Crawford.

This year's Hi-Y chapter exceeded all other chapters of Topeka in enrollment; it also surpassed its last year's enrollment by twenty members.

The high point of the current term's activities was the city-wide induction ceremony in charge of Harold Tillman, December 3.

Mr. Harold Elder was sponsor with a cabinet consisting of: president, Harold Tillman; vice-president, Ronald Billings; secretary, Bill English; treasurer, Frank Young; program chairman, Bill Moseley; publicity, David Fruit and Lynn McDonald; Bible study, Robert Rogers; world brotherhood, Kenneth Downs; social service, Irvin Andres.

In 1939 the State Board for Vocational Education used the activities of the Highland Park F.F.A. chapter as the central theme for a film that was shown throughout the state of Kansas. Included in the film were projects and activities carried on by the members.

For the last several years the F.F.A., under Mr. F. E. Carpenter, has been rated one of the ten best chapters of the state of Kansas.

This year's officers were: president, Norman Jones; vice-president, Robert Rake; secretary, Albert Jackson; treasurer, Theron Kent; reporter, Ernest Abbott.

Color plus fun plus enthusiasm equal Scotch

Lassies, the girls' pep organization. Flashing

Scotch plaid at all athletic events, the club realized another successful year filled with activity under their new sponsor, Miss Beryl Haldeman.

The group elected Jack Beckley, Shirley Underwood, and Frank Young to act as cheerleaders. Noteworthy projects of the year were the pep assemblies throughout the football and basketball seasons; the football banquet January 17 in honor of the championship team; and the annual spring sports dance.

Officers for the year were: president, Wanda Gingrich; vice-president, Jean Parrick; and secretary-treasurer, Betty McCarter.

Scotch Lassies

H Club

H Endeavoring to keep the standards of competition high and to back all school activities, especially of an athletic nature, twenty-nine "H"-Club members started the organization's second year. Again Coach Paul Christensen was faculty advisor.

Two successful events enjoyed by all students and sponsored by the organization were an assembly and a picture show, "The Three Legionnaires."

Officers for the first semester were: president, Ed Hagen; vice-president, Floyd Irish; secretary, Harold Tillman; and treasurer, Wilbur Eberhart. Fred Carrier's election to the presidency was the only second-semester change.

Top row—Mr. Christensen, E. Hagen, F. Irish, H. Tillman, W. Eberhart, F. Morriss, R. Brown. Third row—F. Carrier, B. Martin, C. Allen, H. Epling, G. Price, R. Grabow, L. Lewis. Second row—B. These young Thespians, sponsored by Dorothy Black, proved popular entertainers at musicales, school parties, and assemblies as well as at their own weekly meetings.

The first one-act play presented was "The Robbery." Others were "A Sign Unto You," a Christmas play; "His First Shave," a comedy; and "The Powers That Be," a stylistic play.

The climax of a full year was reached in the artistic three-act production, "Lilies of the Field."

Velma Lou Obenhaus served as president; Marjorie Dargitz, vice-president; and Virginia Langdon, secretary-treasurer.

Spot-Light Club

Plays

Seasonable was the senior presentation of the popular three-act comedy, "Spring Fever," March 1. Miss Golda Crawford directed the cast, which consisted of: Lee Lott, Bill Moseley, Helen Root, Ronald Billings, Mildred Richardson, Calvin Cusic, Clara Jo Fair, Wilbur Eberhart, Velma Lou Obenhaus, Max Holeman and Bill Pennington.

Junior Class Play

"The Hoosier Schoolmaster," an old American classic of post-Civil war days, was given by the junior class December 8, with Miss Glada Strode as director. A production staff of ten worked with the twenty-seven characters of the cast.

Spot-light Club Play

Climaxing an active year of one-act plays, skits, readings, and other entertainment, the Spot-light Club play, "The Lilies of the Field," under the direction of Miss Dorothy Black, was presented March 29. The three-act comedy was a clever portrayal of modern English life.

Coached by Paul Christensen, the Scottie gridsters landed on top of the Jayhawk League again this year with no conference defeats. The defeat by the Marion team marked only the third loss in three years. The decisive victory over the ancient rival, Seaman, and the overwhelming defeat of Wamego, cinched the title.

The honorary captains elected for this year were Marvin Gettler and LeRoy Coleman. Floyd Irish rated the all-state second team, and Marvin Gettler received honorable mention.

Last year's veterans made up the entire first basketball squad this year. Coached by Paul Christensen, the Scottie cagers played one of its most successful seasons, winning twelve and losing two of its league games. Both losses being to St. Marys, the Scotties were in second place in league standings.

The first ten lettermen were: forwards—Marvin Gettler, Bob Knight, Ronnie Shackle, Bill English; guards—Charley Allen, Harold Jones, Fred Carrier, Norman DeVoe; centers—Onan Burnett and Ed Hagen.

Paul Morriss and Harold Tillman received letters as managers.

Basketball

Track

Having won the Jayhawk League trophy three years in succession and with a stronger team than ever this year, the Scotties have hopes for another trophy. At the time the year book went to press, no meets had as yet taken place. The scheduled meets are Intra-city, April 5; Seaman, April 13; Kansas Relays, April 19; Hiawatha Relays, April 27; Jayhawk League Meet, May 3; Baldwin Regionals, May 11; State Meet at Emporia, May 17.

Outstanding men in events are: LeRoy Coleman—quarter-mile, dashes, and relays; Harold Tillman—quarter-mile, discus, dashes, and relays; Ed Hagen—shot-put, discus, and javelin; Loren Lewis—quarter-mile and relays; Raymond Lusco—half-mile; Fred Carrier—hurdles and relays; Marvin Gettler—hurdles, dashes, and pole vault; Onan Burnett—hurdles and relays; James Kinder—pole vault and high jump; Richard Messer—mile; Bob Grabow—mile.

Other prospective point winners are: Warren Kinder, Wayne Fowler, Kenneth Downs, Raymond Brown, Bill Pennington, Paul Morris, and Harold Epling.

Dear Roberta,

You are a very sweet girl. We have had so much fun in S.P. and at the cabinet meetings. I hope next year we can just as much fun. I missed
you at the prom and I sure bequeze the cold you had that made it impossible for you to come. You are smart, sweet and a very likeable person. Good luck always!

(Remember the cabinet meeting at your house!)

Dear Roberta-
You're really a sweet girl. You'll have to work hard in bonds & arch next year. Lots of luck.

Dear Roberta,
 Say, that was really some Biology
 class wasn't it!
 It really was fun though.
 I think you are swell.
 Good Luck.
 Nina Boaz.

Dear Roberta,
 It was swell
 knowing you and being able to ride to school with
 you. Good luck.
 I'm sure I think
 you are a swell person. I hope you will see a lot more
 of each other.
 Good luck.
 Richard Messer.

Dear Roberta:
 I have enjoyed
 being a classmate with
